PREFACE.

DEEMING it to be the duty of the Church to preserve the memory of her pious and devoted Ministers, whose unblemished lives have adorned the doctrine of God their Saviour, and by whose faithful labours thousands have been brought to Christ and believers established in the faith, we have undertaken the compilation of this volume. The careful student of Methodist History will find in these pages sufficient to encourage, admonish, and instruct him. A little more than three quarters of a century have passed away since William Losee was sent as the first Methodist Missionary to Canada. In 1824 the first Canadian Methodist Conference was held at Hallowell, now Picton; at that time there was in connection with the Church thirty-five ministers and preachers, and six thousand one hundred and fifty members. The forty-three years which have since passed away have not been years of idleness or unfruitfulness. At the last Conference our ministers and preachers numbered five hundred and thirty, and our membership fifty-eight thousand four hundred and fifty seven. With wonder and gratitude we may exclaim, what hath God wrought! The early trials and triumphs of the heroes of Young Canadian Methodism are not, nor will not be forgotten. Precious memories of the past! Memories embalmed in the gratitude of the thousands who have been saved and profited through their ministry, and as we view large and extended fields of usefulness opening up, and the God of Providence furnishing men and means for their cultivation, we must give utterance to the words of the dying Wesley, and say—"The best of all is, God is with us."

Fourteen years ago a "Register of Preachers' Names" was published by the Rev. John Douse, but it did not contain any record of those who had been dropped, expelled, or who had withdrawn. Here, however, may be found a complete record of all whose names have appeared in the Minutes of Conference, together with those who travelled in Canada under the direction of the M. E. Church, U. S., prior to the formation of the Canada Conference, and those who travelled under the direction of the English Conference.

At first it was not intended to insert the names of any who had been dropped while on probation, but from advice given by brethren whose judgment we respect, it was thought advisable to make mention of all. The propriety of this course will be apparent when consulting the Register of Circuits and Missions, for if this were not done, there would necessarily be a blank in some years on some Circuits or Missions, but having inserted the names of all, the Register of Ministers' names, and the Register of Circuits and Missions will be found to agree with each other.

The changes and divisions which have taken place in many of the Circuits and Missions, have made the work of arranging them somewhat difficult, and in many instances it has not been found an easy task to mark these changes with accuracy, so as to form a connecting link between old and new stations. It has been our object, however, to note as far as information could be obtained, the changes which have taken place, for, as the record stands on the Minutes, a correct idea of the appointment is not always given; changes have apparently taken place in the stations of brethren, when in reality there has been no change, except in the name of the Circuit or Mission, through division or otherwise.

In many instances changes have taken place in the appointments of brethren after the publication of the Minutes, or between the intervals of Conference, of which no record has been made, hence in some cases it has been found impossible to arrive at correct information. If, therefore, any brother finds on examination that he is misrepresented, he will not attribute it to carelessness or indifference on the part of the compiler, but to errors in the most authentic sources of information.

Great care has been taken to have every item as correct as possible, and to effect this, the Minutes of Conference, Douse's Register, Hill's Arrangement, Playter's History of Canadian Methodism, Carroll's Past and Present, Stevens' Life of Dr. Bangs, the first volume of the Minutes of the M. E. Church, several of the English Minutes and Magazines, and the written journals of the Lower Canada District Meetings have been diligently examined, and without encumbering the work with numerous references; to these volumes the compiler would here acknowledge his indebtedness, and at the same time tender his hearty thanks to those brethren who have from time to time given him much private information and advice, and who have so kindly and promptly responded by letter to his enquiries.

The tedious but interesting task of preparing the principal part of the manuscript for this work, was done during the Conference years of 1862-63, while the author was employed in the full work of the ministry on the laborious and extensive Point Mara, now Beaverton Mission, —a Mission having at that time appointments in six townships, and necessitating travel to the extent of more than 7,500 miles during the two years. It must be manifest to any one acquainted with laborious Mission work, where eleven appointments must be visited every three weeks, and one of them every Sabbath, and these scattered over such an extent of country, with long and toilsome journeys between them, that my task has not been an easy one, and yet it shows what may be done by perseverance in the improvement of time.

The publication has been delayed owing to the author's unwillingness to incur the responsibility connected therewith, until a sufficient number of copies were subscribed for to cover the cost of publication, and thereby save from financial embarrassment. In the mean time, numerous corrections, additions, and improvements have been made, adding to the correctness and value of the work.

And now, having in the good providence of God been permitted to complete this volume, we cherish the hope that while supplying an acknowledged want in reference to the statistics of the Church, it will be of essential service to those honoured brethren whose lot it is to form the Stationing Committee of the Conference, as they will here see at a glance on what fields the brethren have already toiled; while every Minister and member of the Church will find it useful as a work of reference.

Praying that the fervour and simplicity of our fathers, their love of the truth, and self-denying devotion to their work, may survive in their sons and successors till time shall be no more, this volume is commended to the patronage of the Church, confidently relying upon their help and support in securing for it a wide circulation.

THE AUTHOR.
